1.    Grant “Freedom of the City” to HMCS Queen Charlotte

“Freedom of the City” is the highest honour a city can award a Canadian Forces unit and to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Canadian Navy, HMCS Queen Charlotte was bestowed this honor.

Moved by Councillor Stu MacFadyen
Seconded by Councillor Peter McCloskey

RESOLVED:

THAT THIS DAY AND HENCEFORTH MAY IT BE KNOWN THAT on this occasion in honour of the 100th anniversary of the Canadian Navy, that the City of Charlottetown in the realm of Canada of her Gracious Majesty, Queen Elizabeth the Second, by virtue of the authority of a resolution passed by Charlottetown City Council on the third day of October Two Thousand and Ten,

HEREBY PROCLAIM AND GRANT TO HMCS QUEEN CHARLOTTE the Freedom of the Charlottetown Municipality all rights and privileges pertaining thereto, as long as the waters of the Charlottetown Harbour and adjacent rivers embrace the shores of Charlottetown, to enter therein and march throughout its streets, thoroughfares and highways, without hindrance or trespass on any and all occasions with flags flying, bayonets fixed and band playing.

This Freedom is granted and confirmed in grateful acknowledgement and recognition of services rendered and duty bravely performed by the men and women of Canada's Navy throughout the past one hundred years, and this grant is particularly to perpetuate the feats of bravery, devotion, and glory of Naval ships and their sailors, Regular and Reserve forces, who were called to active duty in World War One, World War Two, the Korean Conflict, the Persian Gulf War and in response to natural disasters and disturbances, all of which are held dear to the hearts of Charlottetown and all of its citizens.

In particular and without limiting the foregoing, this Freedom is granted and to be recognized as a memorial to all ranks who have served and contributed to the Navy's distinguished history, who have given their lives on the altar of freedom in the performance of their duty and earned for their comrades and all who came after them the honour now recognized and being secured to them in perpetuity by their fellow citizens hereby recorded.

SIGNED AND SEALED on behalf of the Corporation of the City of Charlottetown, this third day of October in Year of the Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

CARRIED 8-0
