

Volunteer of the Month - December 2006

Councillor Danny Redmond is pleased to present the final volunteer of the month award for 2006. The December recipient, of the City of Charlottetown Parks and Recreation Department "Volunteer of the Month Award" is John Gallant.

Left - Right (Danny Redmond Chair of Charlottetown Parks, Recreation, and Leisure Activities Committee) John Gallant and Dean Worth (Nominator).

John has been a volunteer with the Winsloe West Royalty Soccer Club for 18 years. He has held many roles with the club over those years, including: President, Vice President, Fields Coordinator, and many others. Some other involvements includes: assisting with Annual Club Soccer Tournament, assisting with a plan to construct a new clubhouse, and assisting with field maintenance. John is always willing to do what it takes to get the task done, with no task being too small or too big for him to devote his efforts too. He is a team player and has a strong sense of pride in the club. Parks and Recreation staff states, that John is a pleasure to work with as volunteer.

John commitment to the Winsloe West Royalty Soccer Club over the years makes him an ideal candidate for the Volunteer of the Month Award.

John and his wife reside in West Royalty with their children.

Congratulations John on your selection as "Volunteer of the Month" for December 2006.
