Mayor Lee called the meeting to order

1. Grant “Freedom of the City” to the Argonaut Cadet Training Centre

Granting Freedom of the City is the highest honour a city can bestow. This historic tradition signifies a city’s trust in a military unit, organization or dignitary.

Moved by Deputy Mayor Mike Duffy
Seconded by Councillor Jason Coady

RESOLVED:

Whereas the City of Charlottetown has had a long relationship with the Canadian Cadet Movement; and

Whereas the Argonaut Cadet Training Centre has served the youth of the Atlantic Region with honour and distinction and has inspired the highest ideals of dedication, integrity, and patriotism; and

Whereas the Argonaut Cadet Training Centre perpetuates the highest qualities of citizenship, leadership, physical fitness and an abiding interest in Canada’s Armed Forces; and

Whereas it is considered that the honourable record of the Atlantic Region Cadets from the Argonaut Cadet Training Centre be recognized;

Therefore Be It Resolved that this Council in formal session assembled, does hereby confer in perpetuity upon, the Argonaut Cadet Training Centre the right to march through the streets of the City of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, with drums beating, flags flying and pride in their step. In recognition, that the record of the Argonaut Cadet Training Centre evokes the highest degree of admiration and has earned the highest degree of honour. The granting of the Freedom of the City, being an ancient tradition, is the highest honour that a city can bestow.

Signed and Sealed on behalf of the Council of the Corporation of the City of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada, this twenty-second day of July, two thousand and fifteen.
